

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION, AS RECEIVER OF SILVER STATE BANK

Plaintiffs,

vs.

COREY L. JOHNSON; DOUGLAS E.
FRENCH; GARY A. GARDNER; and
TIMOTHY S. KIRBY

Defendants,

Case No.: 2:12-CV-209

JOINT MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF ORDER
DENYING STIPULATION TO MODIFY SCHEDULING ORDER REGARDING EXPERT DISCLOSURES

I. Introduction

The parties jointly move for reconsideration of the Court's Order of November 19, 2012 (Dkt. No. 69), which denied the parties' November 15, 2012 stipulation (Dkt. No. 67) to amend the present Scheduling Order (Dkt. No. 58) regarding expert disclosures.

II. Discussion

The November 15, 2012 stipulation should have more clearly stated that the parties' requested amendment of the scheduling order does not seek to lengthen the discovery period, postpone the trial date, or extend any deadline except the expert disclosure deadline. That is, all dates other than the expert disclosure deadline would remain unchanged under the parties' proposal, and the expert disclosures would simply move to a later date within the existing discovery period.

Under the current schedule, the parties must both disclose their experts and serve reports by January 22, 2013. The parties cannot meet this schedule due to the ongoing, but incomplete, review of the voluminous document production, the need to coordinate the schedules of many

1 attorneys and witnesses for depositions, and the expert witnesses' need for time to process the
2 information resulting from these discovery efforts. To be more precise, the FDIC has produced
3 12,305 documents, consisting of 165,478 pages,¹ including a 36,540-page production on or 4 about November 13, 2012. The latter production, consisting of 3,261 documents, consists of the 5 original files of the loans at issue.

7 The parties therefore request that the expert disclosure deadline be amended so that initial
8 disclosures are exchanged by March 26, 2013, with responses exchanged by April 23, 2013.
9 The parties expect that this modification of the schedule will allow them to complete fact
10 discovery in sufficient time to enable the experts to prepare their reports. The modification
11 further leaves time within the existing schedule to complete expert depositions.

12
13 Specifically, the parties wish to amend Paragraph 2(E) of the current Scheduling Order to 14 read as follows:

15 The parties shall exchange the information and reports required by Fed. R.
16 Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B) and (a)(2)(C) by March 26, 2013. Rebuttal reports shall 17 be exchanged by April 23, 2013.

18 Again, the parties do not seek to extend the discovery period or move any date other than 19 the expert disclosure deadlines, and then only to postpone expert disclosures. The stipulation
20 does not affect other deadlines stated in the present Scheduling Order.

¹ The FDIC's production includes documents under the following Bates prefixes: FDIC 1-74407, SSB 1-90462, and SSB-DF 1 -609.

1 For these reasons, which the parties did not fully articulate in their November 15, 2012
2 stipulation, the parties respectfully request that the Court reconsider its November 19, 2012
3 Order denying the stipulation.
